FROM THE PASTOR

White Sunday, Low Sunday or Quasimodo Sunday! It is the traditional Sunday where the newly baptized deposed their white garments and offer it to Our Lady the same way we do it at the end of an infant baptism. For adults, we take more time for them to enjoy their new state of life. At the end of the ceremony, it was a tradition to give them a drink: a mix of milk and almonds. That is why we have now the tradition to share dragee almond also called sugar almonds.

Today, we celebrate the newly baptized. In these days of crisis, we see that lately there is a worldwide surge in baptism everywhere or at least, it is noticeable in the North Hemisphere. We should thank God this Sunday as it is so appropriate traditionally.

After the exercises of Lent, we continue to celebrate after the Octave of Easter. The liturgy is joyful and expresses the sentiments we got from the Triduum. Hopefully, we all had a tremendous Lent where we learnt something about us and got a touch of God in our lives. As we said before every single Lent should have brought a change in our lives something to keep from now on.

We have great occasions to celebrate. Also, after a long and struggling Winter, we have now the opportunity to celebrate our Easter Joy getting some fresh air. As nature takes back its revival, let us ourselves revive our Love for God in being thankful for what He gave us! Happy continuation of Easter.

Prayer in adopting a dying Soul.

Heavenly Father, through the loving intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, I humbly offer my prayer today by adopting a dying soul, known or unknown to me. May they be reconciled with You through an act of perfect contrition and be strengthened by the Sacraments of the Church, with the assistance of their loved ones. Amen.

One Our Father, One Hail Mary, and One Glory Be.
